A Prayer for God's Glory to Win the Day in My Heart...Today

O God, I cry out for the rescue of my Redeemer.

I pray that You would fight on my behalf, that Your grace would cause me to love You more than I love myself.

I pray that You would give me such a profound satisfaction in Your glory that I would have no interest in seeking my own.

And as I pray, I know that I will need to pray this prayer again tomorrow, because tomorrow I will once again be tempted to lose my place and to make my life and situation the one thing it should never be --- all about me.

Thank you, O God, my refuge and strength.

Today I choose to rest in You.

In Jesus' name.

Amen.
