

“Faith Anchored to the Past...Looking to the Future”

Hebrews 11:17-19 – May 14, 2017 – Pastor Bill Schlonecker

Throughout the years of Jesus’ public ministry, a recurring rebuke was:

“O you of _____”

Jesus’ interactions with His disciples were to move them to _____ –

He wanted them to learn to _____ Him fully...

That Jesus Christ was _____ - _____.

We begin our life with Christ thru “_____ faith”...

We follow Christ daily thru “_____ faith”

“Faith is the _____ of things hoped for,

the _____ of things not seen.” ~ Heb 11:1

B/c faith seeks and desires in Christ that which is better and beyond what this world offers...

1-Faith calls for us to _____ Christ more than our most _____ earthly treasure – for Abraham, his only son (without _____)

2-Faith compels us to put _____ in God’s hand, relinquishing our _____ and giving control over to God (without _____)

Abraham’s obedience was un_____

Abraham’s obedience was un_____

Abraham’s obedience was un_____

3-Faith constrains us to let God be God and _____ in His infinite _____ and _____ and love (without reasonable _____)

“Lord, b/c You are indeed “faith-worthy,” I choose to trust You FULLY in this situation which has me frustrated, confused, and troubled:”
